Users' meeting
Satellite Meetings
January 27, 2011

European XFEL USERS' MEETING 2011
January 26, 2011

We invite our users and collaborators to attend the HASYLAB Users' Meeting 2011, and are looking forward to welcoming interested scientists from many different disciplines for discussions of the current and future research at the DESY light sources:

- > DORIS III
- > PETRA III
- > FLASH

This unique range of light sources in the Hamburg region will be complemented by the forthcoming

- > European XFEL

Topics to be covered at the Users Meeting include news from the photon science activities, research highlights, and a report from the HASYLAB User Committee. A Soft X-ray session featuring FLASH experiments is organised on Thursday January, 27 in collaboration with the European XFEL Users' Meeting.

A joint poster session will take place on Friday accompanied by a vendor exhibition.

Registration is required, especially for poster submissions
