

Close out report of CERN's Maintenance Management Project MMP/MFIO

Monday 12 October 2015 14:00 (30 minutes)

CERN's Maintenance Management Project has united stakeholders from various departments during three years to work on harmonization of maintenance management methods and to implement maintenance management through a maintenance methods office in a few pilot groups. This presentation will give a brief review of the project and its achievements and present the lessons learned.

Primary author: PERINIC, Goran (CERN)

Presenter: PERINIC, Goran (CERN)

Session Classification: Workshop Presentations

Track Classification: Maintenance requirements, strategies and business processes