Some more insider tips

Restaurants/bars

be aimed towards students/postdocs I guess, but here are a list of restaurants and bars that I know can handle reasonably large groups of people without advance notice and are easy to reach via S-Bahn:

Altona Bars:

- Aurel: Bahrenfelder Str. 155
- Reh: <http://rehbar.de/> [rehbar.de]

Altona Restaurants:

- Kick and Company (German food and bar, pool table and darts in large back room).
- Madrigal: Friedensalle 7 (Tapas, inside Zeise kino building)
- Otto's Burger: <http://ottosburger.com/ottensen/> [ottosburger.com]

Schanze/Reeperbahn Bars:

- Zoe and Zoe2: <http://www.zoebar.de/> [www.zoebar.de]
- Goldfischbar: <http://goldfischglas.de/> [goldfischglas.de]
- Mutter: Stresemannstr. 11
- Luba Luft (or anywhere around Paul Roosen Str. Many bars close together)
<http://www.lubaluft.de/> [www.lubaluft.de]

Reeperbahn Restaurants:

- Kombuse (small place, but you can have the food sent to the bar next door) Bernhard-Nocht-Straße 51, 20359
- The Bird (best burgers in Hamburg, booking in advance on the day is a good idea and usually not a problem) <http://www.thebirdinhamburg.com/> [www.thebirdinhamburg.com]

Most of those locations are in areas where there are lots of other bars and restaurants and all of those options are fine for non-German speakers as well, so people shouldn't have a problem with booking tables and things like that. Hope that's helpful!

- Ubel and Gefährlich: <http://www.uebelundgefaehrlich.com/> [www.uebelundgefaehrlich.com]
- Molatow: <http://molotowclub.com/programm/programm.php> [molotowclub.com]

And I suppose I have to mention <http://grossefreiheit36.de/>
