

Dark Energy at the LHC

Monday 20 June 2016 12:15 (20 minutes)

I discuss the opportunities and limitations of LHC searches for dark energy using effective field theory techniques, predominantly focusing on mono-jet and top final states. Since these searches are based on high momentum transfer and relativistic final states, I will also discuss the range of validity that dark energy interpretations of such signatures face.

Primary author: Dr ENGLERT, Christoph (University of Glasgow)

Presenter: Dr ENGLERT, Christoph (University of Glasgow)