CEUR Workshop Proceedings (CEUR-WS.org)

Online Proceedings for Scientific Conferences and Workshops

Unless stated explicitly and in conformance to the legal Disclaimer of Sun SITE Central Europe (CEUR) and the legal Disclaimer of Technical University of Aachen (RWTH), the copyright for the workshop proceedings as a compilation, i.e. CEUR-WS.org/Vol-1, CEUR-WS.org/Vol-2 etc., is with the respective proceedings editor. The copyright for the individual items (subsuming any type of computer-represented files containing articles, software demos, videos, etc.) within a proceedings volume is owned by their respective authors. Copying of items, in particular papers, and proceedings volumes is permitted only for private and academic purposes. Permission for academic use implies an attribution obligation, i.e., you must properly cite the items that you use in your own published work. Modification of items is prohibited unless a suitable license is granted by its copyright owners. Copying or use for commercial purposes is forbidden unless an explicit permission is acquired from the copyright owners. Re-publication of a CEUR Workshop Proceedings volume or of an individual item inside a proceedings volume requires permission by the copyright owners, i.e. either the respective proceedings editors, or the authors of the respective item in that volume, or both. Mirroring of the CEUR-WS.org website or parts thereof is prohibited. The label 'CEUR Workshop Proceedings' and the CEUR-WS logo are owned by the publisher of the proceedings volume. The label is not to be used by the academic community. CEUR-WS.org is not run by an organization but by volunteers from different universities.
