

My Summary: But...

- We are talking about China here, so remember:
  - It is a dictatorship.
  - The respect for intellectual property and to acknowledging the work of others is rather relaxed. Going through the slides it was amazing how seldom eg. DESY or CERN or iLCSoft or ... was acknowledged.
  - While this is true ...
  - ... so is this

My Summary: But...

- We are talking about China here, so remember:
  - It is a dictatorship.
  - The respect for intellectual property and to acknowledging the work of others is rather relaxed. Going through the slides it was amazing how seldom eg. DESY or CERN or iLCSoft or ... was acknowledged.
- While this is true ...
- ... so is this

My Summary: But...

- We are talking about China here, so remember:
  - It is a dictatorship.
  - The respect for intellectual property and to acknowledging the work of others is rather relaxed. Going through the slides it was amazing how seldom eg. DESY or CERN or iLCSoft or ... was acknowledged.
  - While this is true ...
  - ... so is this

GDP
Per the International Monetary Fund
(2016)<sup>[1]</sup>

Rank ↕	Country ↕	GDP (US$MM) ↕	Ra
	World<sup>[19]</sup>	75,278,049
1	 United States	18,624,450
—	 European Union<sup>[n 1][19]</sup>	16,408,364
2	 China<sup>[n 2]</sup>	11,232,108
3	 Japan	4,936,543
4	 Germany	3,479,232
5	 United Kingdom	2,629,188

My Summary: But...

- We are talking about China here, so remember:
  - It is a dictatorship.
  - The respect for intellectual property and to acknowledging the work of others is rather relaxed. Going through the slides it was amazing how seldom eg. DESY or CERN or iLCSoft or ... was acknowledged.
  - While this is true ...
  - ... so is this

GDP per capita

11	 Sweden	51,165
12	 San Marino	46,447
13	 Netherlands	45,283
14	 Austria	44,498
—	 Hong Kong	43,528
15	 Finland	43,169
16	 Canada	42,210
17	 Germany	41,902

68	 Russia	8,929
69	 Brazil	8,727
70	 Mexico	8,555
71	 China	8,113
72	 Saint Lucia	7,940
73	 Nauru	7,824
74	 Gabon	7,587
75	 Kazakhstan	7,453