

The High-Energy Universe

Friday 15 October 2010 - Saturday 16 October 2010

Residenz Würzburg

Scientific Programme

The main theme of this workshop is the exploration of very high energy phenomena in the Universe using methods from astrophysics and particle physics. The workshop will gather international research leaders together with postgraduates and early career researchers. Among the covered topics are LHC physics, neutrino physics, dark matter and gamma rays.