Abstract
PUNCH4NFDI (Particles, Universe, NuClei and Hadrons for the NFDI) aims at developing concepts and tools for the efficient management of digital research products in fundamental physics research. At the heart of the research products are scientific data sets that should be made interoperable and available to a broad scientific community and the public for a sustainable usage (“open data”). The first PUNCH4NFDI “Open Data Workshop” gave the opportunity for an initial survey of existing and planned open data initiatives within the PUNCH science field. The paper addresses the conceptual differences and commonalities of the participating communities presented in the workshop. Existing open data collections were presented and discussed. This is an inquiry into the community’s requirements for a better use of open data and in this context also of “Open Science”.

Sections and Working Groups

Many new groups esp in Metadata and Common Infrastructures, more coming up

Issue: person power

- Need better integration of more and new persons in such activities
- Need scouting possibilities of TA / WP leaders
- Need more commitment from co-applicants / their PIs in volunteering people and work power.

News from committees etc.

News from TAs?

→ See mail last Thursday:

There is a feeling that

- we are suffering from too few people for the many tasks awaiting the consortium
- we need to increase communication between and within TAs (e.g. last week another example reached me where necessary information did not trickle down in the TAs)
- we need to have regular meetings of all TAs and WPs even if no personnel has been hired in some tasks and institutions
- we need to more strongly involve the Coapplicant institutions and their PIs

As a first step we would like to structure the MB meetings on Monday morning more strongly by briefly discussing all TAs (except 1, this is in the normal news, I guess) along the lines of the single slide in the attachment.

==> can please ALL TAs have this one slide ready EVERY week? The blue parts can stay rather static, I guess - shouldn't / needn't change too often.

We would like to spend 5-10 minutes per TA every Monday.
