

Meeting Notes

03th of October 2023

- pySciCat
 - a new release will be available soon
- Spencer from PSI
 - 2 programmers which will put some effort in SciCat
 - Despina: she will most likely help with jobs migration
 - Matt: he will work adding multiple backends (?)
 - json editor
 - presented the web based contributed tool
 - it allows editing datasets json representation at creation time, including scientific metadata
 - a new repository will be created under the SciCat project
 - it will be considered for inclusion in core
 - we should reach out to Linus to compare his tool with this one
- Releases
 - create slack channel for planned releases
 - reviewed github projects columns:
 - To-Do
 - Accepted
 - In Progress
 - Ready
 - Reviewed
 - Done
 - Regina (DESY) will contact a new DESY person for leading Release 4.5
- Sign-up
 - Open slack channel for Q&A, email list and meeting sign-up.
 - Carlo will check how to set-up open channel on slack
 - a link of this channels will be posted on the website
- Website
 - Add Alex (RFI)
 - Reminded to participants to review website and let website leader what is missing or needed to be change
 - Laura accepted to be the website content leader
- Max will ask Bjorn(MLZ) to become the issues and PR review leader
- Regina asked questions about:
 - Roles (v3.x) → Groups (v4.x)
 - BE v4.x documentation
 - Validation
 - Authorization
 - Script migrate-mongo
 - FE configuration

- OIDC configuration changes
- Ingestor user