Contribution ID: 10   Type: not specified

Samuel Grushevsky

Ends of strata of differentials

Using the multi-scale compactification, we determine the number of ends of strata of meromorphic differentials. It turns that in almost all cases all connected components of the strata of differentials have only one end. This is joint work with Ben Dozier.