Sunflower Lanyards – Hidden Disabilities

- Not every disability is visible at first sight.
- Persons with hidden disabilities, conditions or chronic illnesses might need a helping hand, more time, a quiet and safe place or other support.
- If you wish to show your hidden disability, condition or chronic illness to others, feel free to ask for a sunflower lanyard at the conference office.
- If you see a person wearing a sunflower lanyard, please respect the person's needs.

Photographs

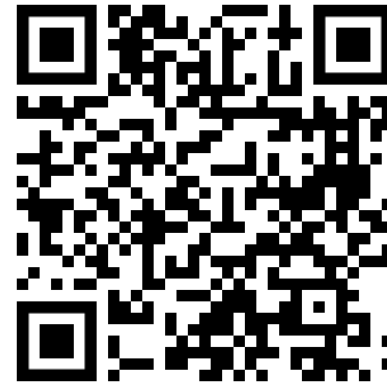

We would like to inform you that photographs will be taken during the conference for documentation purposes and public relations activities. The images are intended to provide a general impression of the event, which means that (without explicit consent) only larger groups of people will be pictured, where individuals appear in the background or are not clearly identifiable. Possible publication channels include: CAU website (www.uni-kiel.de), IPN website (www.ipn.leibniz-ipn.de), conference website (www.dpt25.physik.uni-kiel.de) or social media of IPN (Twitter: @IPN_Kiel / Instagram: @ipn_kiel) and PPT (@physikprojekttag). The processing of the images is based on Article 6(1)(f) of the DSGVO. The rights of the individuals photographed, as set out in Articles 15–22 and 34 of the DSGVO, remain unaffected.

If you do not wish to appear in photographs,
