The University of Limerick (UL) is located in Castletroy, approximately 3km from Limerick City Centre.

Airports in Ireland

Getting from Limerick city to UL:

Limerick is accessible from all Irish airports, but we recommend Shannon Airport as it is close to UL and is small airport so is easy and quick to get through. There are also ferries from the UK, France and Spain to Dublin, Cork and Rosslare ports.

Bus services connect Limerick City to UL, routes 304, 304A and 310. There are two bus stops in the University, one inside the Main Entrance (closest to the Castletroy Park Hotel) and the second outside the University of Limerick Stables Club/ UL Student Life (centre of campus).

Shannon Airport is located 24km from Limerick City and is well-served by Bus and Taxi Services.

There are a number of bus services which connect Shannon Airport to Limerick City, including Route 51 and Route 343, with a drop-off point located at Limerick Bus and Train Station (Colbert Station) or William Street in Limerick city centre. Bus routes 304, 304A and 310 connect Limerick city to UL, Alternatively, there is an airport cab and taxi desk located in the Arrivals Hall. The average cost is approximately €50-€70.

Dublin Airport and Cork airports: There are several coach operators who offer fast and efficient services from Dublin and Cork Airports. For current pricing and timetables:
