Many results are still coming out from the HERA collaborations and combinations produce high-precision text-book results, which are used in the analyses of the LHC experiments, and shed light on the multi-dimensional structure of the proton. Recent results for the summer conferences will be presented by three HERA experiments.

Coffee, tea and cookies will be served at 15:45h

• After the seminar there is a chance for private discussions with the speakers over wine and pretzels
