

The European XFEL Users' Meeting is an annual opportunity to strengthen the interaction between the European XFEL project and the scientific user community. This year it will focus on:

- Selected science applications
- Progress and current status of the European XFEL
- Results of 2009 technical and scientific workshops
- Current developments in the field of XFEL facilities
- Job opportunities at the European XFEL

Bursaries for young scientists

Thanks to the support by the European Commission, we are able to offer a financial contribution of up to 600 €, depending on distance, towards travel and living expenses to a limited number of young scientists.

Eligible are all science graduate students or recent PhDs (doctorate granted after Jan 01, 2008).

To apply, send a request to secretaries@xfel.eu before January 4, 2010, with a CV including the topic, the name of the thesis advisor and the University of your PhD work, as well as the date of completion of your doctorate (or the expected date, if you did not complete it yet).

Organizing committee:

Henry Chapman (CFEL/DESY), Gyula Faigel (SZFKI, Budapest), Josef Feldhaus (DESY) Massimo Altarelli, Christian Bressler, Imke Gembalies, Serguei Molodtsov, Andreas Schwarz, Thomas Tschentscher, Karl Witte (European XFEL)
